

Technical Advisor – Nossal Institute for Global Health

Nossal Institute for Global Health at the University of Melbourne is seeking a global health researcher to join us in the role of Technical Advisor.

This is a 12-month parental leave replacement part-time contract (working two to four days a week), to work within the Health Systems, Governance and Health Financing Unit. The Technical Advisor will assist with research activities including data gathering and analysis, report writing and communication with partners, and supporting the preparation of research funding applications.

The successful candidate will have demonstrated experience in conducting quantitative and qualitative data collection and analysis; and excellent written and verbal communication skills. High level initiative and organisational skills are essential.

Further details can be obtained from the Position Description or by contacting Katherine Gilbert (katherine.gilbert@unimelb.edu.au – please do not send your application to this address).

Candidates are requested to submit a CV (maximum 3 pages), and a covering letter that addresses each selection criteria as outlined in the position description (maximum 3 pages). Applications are to be forwarded to Nossal-HR@unimelb.edu.au with “Application – Technical Advisor” included in the subject line.

Applications close – 5:00pm Wednesday 3 March 2021.

Nossal Institute for Global Health is committed to workplace equity and diversity and encourages applications from candidates with diverse cultural backgrounds and people with a disability.

Only those eligible to work in Australia need apply.

Relevant background checks will be completed prior to the preferred candidate’s employment being confirmed. Please No Agencies