THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Our university

A tradition of excellence

Founded in 1853, the University of Melbourne is the leading centre of higher education and research in Australia. With strong research performance, excellence in learning and teaching and intellectual and social capital, the University is consistently positioned with the world's leading universities.

With eight campuses across Melbourne and regional Victoria – Parkville, Southbank, Burnley, Hawthorn, Creswick, Dookie, Shepparton and Werribee – the University continues to grow, creating new contemporary spaces for student living and learning, investing in our world-leading research centres and developing new innovation hubs giving the wider community further opportunities to participate in learning opportunities and social forums.

In 2018, over 28,000 people attended Open Day at the Parkville and Southbank campuses.
