The Opportunity

Orygen Digital is seeking a MOST Engagement Officer. You will be well supported operationally to ensure your career at Orygen is both fulfilling and rewarding without compromising on your life goals.

If you have a passion for the field of youth mental health and want to make a real difference to the lives of young people and their families and carers and share Orygen's values of respect, accountability, teamwork, excellence and innovation, then we would love you to join the Orygen team to revolutionise youth mental health.

The role and your impact

Part-time/ full-time (0.8 – 1.0 FTE) fixed term position available for 12, with opportunity for further employment.

The MOST Engagement Officer will be part of a dynamic team that is working with external services to offer Orygen Digital's Moderated Online Social Therapy (MOST) to young people. The role involves talking with young people and their families/carers to explain how MOST can be an additional support to the care they are receiving in their face-to-face service, and to help them sign up to the platform. The MOST Engagement Officer will have a highly developed ability to communicate effectively with young people and their families/carers, a flair for influencing others, and the ability to work autonomously.

About you

Essential to this role is previous experience working in a customer engagement role involving regular interactions. You are passionate, energetic and determined to make a difference to health outcomes for young people. In addition, you will bring:

- Strong ability to engage, support, recruit, and influence others, particularly through verbal communication.
- Capacity to work independently, without direct supervision, in a fast-paced environment with clear performance indicators.
- Supportive and highly motivated individual with an enthusiastic attitude.
- Demonstrated sound judgement and problem solving abilities.
- Passionate about technology and digital interventions in youth mental health, including MOST.
